RE: U.S. v. Michael Coleman
Docket No. 07- 810 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

On November 9, 2007, our office received the initial pre-sentencing investigation report from U.S. Probation Officer, Diane Plummer. As reflected in our submission dated December 4, 2007, we did not submit any objections. On December 4, 2007 at 5:13PM, our office received a fax from Ms. Plummer containing a duplicate of the initial report, however, an addendum dated December 4, 2007 was attached.

We respectfully submit that this addendum inaccurately portrays our client and contains inflammatory statements that are without basis and fact. Our office will be submitting an objection in response to this addendum. Moreover, we respectfully submit that Probation has not conducted a home inspection and/or visit with our client which may be relevant to the investigative process.

Thus, we respectfully request that Mr. Coleman's sentencing, currently scheduled for December 14, 2007, be adjourned until the home inspection and/or visit takes place.

Respectfully yours,

Frank J. Phillips
